Alexey Pirozhkin

OVERVIEW

Alexey Pirozhkin is an independent attorney-at-law cooperating with Queritius. He is a Solicitor of England & Wales and a registered foreign lawyer in Germany (§ 206 BRAO). Alexey focuses on international arbitration and cross-border litigation.

With nine years of dispute-resolution experience, Alexey has worked at leading international law firms and served with an international judicial body.

He has experience participating in resolution of complex international disputes in, among others, the fields of construction, international trade, M&A, and pharmaceuticals under different arbitration rules, including SCC, ICC, VIAC, LCIA, CIETAC, Lewiatan Court of Arbitration, the International Arbitration Court at the BelCCI.

During his LLM studies at Uppsala University (Sweden) Alexey worked as an intern at the Arbitration Institute of the Stockholm Chamber of Commerce. This experience allows him to understand how international disputes are managed from an institutional perspective and to use this knowledge for the best of the clients.
