

Barbara Sándor

OVERVIEW

Barbara is an Associate at Queritius. After obtaining her law degree from the University of Pécs, she began her career as a tax consultant. With two years of experience as a junior associate in an international environment, she gained extensive exposure to managing litigation and arbitration proceedings by actively supporting senior lawyers. She has had the opportunity to work across various legal fields, including corporate and labor law.

Her professional focus is now on litigation and arbitration proceedings.
