

Joanna Iwanicka

OVERVIEW

Joanna Iwanicka is a business lawyer and an Associate at Queritius. She is an Attorney-at-Law licensed to practice law in New York and in Poland. Joanna focuses on commercial litigation and international arbitration.

Prior to joining Queritius, Joanna worked in a top-tier law firm in Poland, where she negotiated commercial agreements for global companies, including purchasing, distribution, independent contractor, and marketing agreements in a variety of sectors. She supervised, managed, and handled litigations and mediated disputes primarily related to domestic and cross-border matters involving, among others, the sale of goods, intellectual property, and new technologies.

Joanna's knowledge and training gained throughout her work within the EU institutional framework prepared her to handle complex transnational disputes that define the current legal and business environment.

She is an active member of numerous legal associations and organisations, including the New York State Bar Association International Law and Intellectual Property Law Sections, as well as The International Centre for Dispute Resolution Young & International.
