

Márta Gárdos-Jovanovic

OVERVIEW

Márta Gárdos-Jovanovic is the Office Manager and Paralegal at Queritius' Budapest office, also supporting operations in Zagreb. She brings over a decade of experience in professional support roles, including four years in diplomacy and government administration, and thrives in high-pressure, high-volume environments.

Márta began her career in 2007 at the Hungarian Embassy in Belgrade, where she progressed from administrative assistant and translator to Economic Attaché in 2015. In 2020, she returned to Budapest to work as a project manager in water and wastewater initiatives for the National Development Program Office. Following the office's integration into the Ministry of Construction and Transport in 2024, she served as Head of Secretariat to a Deputy Secretary of State.

Her expertise includes office administration, document and database management, event coordination, legal support, and financial operations. Her diverse background across diplomacy, government, and business enables her to adapt to the dynamic nature of legal practice and contribute to the firm's smooth day-to-day functioning.

Márta holds a BA in Political Science and International Relations from the University of Belgrade and completed a master's program in macroeconomics through a joint Serbian-French course at the University's Faculty of Economics
